

Topic Context: Sometimes the US acts aggressively towards other countries if there is disagreement with US foreign policy

Evidence # 1 Context: At a meeting in Pittsburgh President Obama met with the leaders Of France and Great Britain. They talked about a new nuclear facility that was discovered in Iran.

Evidence # 1: In a joint statement the US, France and Great Britain accused Iran of hiding a secret nuclear materials enrichment facility.

Evidence #1 elaboration and analysis: The US and its allies believe that nuclear facilities need to be Monitored and inspected by international agencies. By ganging up on Iran they showed how Iran's behavior is unacceptable and will not be tolerated.

Transition #1 and Context: Another way that the US is acting aggressively with Iran is by threatening to use sanctions if Iran does not cooperate with international inspectors.

Evidence #2: The announcement “would make it easier to build a case for international sanctions against the country if it blocks inspectors or refuses to halt its nuclear program.”
